MEMO

RE: WILLIAM DANZIGER and STANLEY RICH
ESPIONAGE - R

On August 11, 1950, MAX ELITCHER advised that he had no photographs at home of BEN ZUCKERMAN. He furnished the writer with a group photograph taken in 1938 showing a portion of the students of the class of 1938, City College of New York, Engineering School. In this photograph were WILLIAM DANZIGER and STANLEY RICH. ELITCHER requested that this photograph be returned to him and accordingly, copies are being made in the photo laboratory of the New York office.

ELITCHER advised that this is the only photograph he has of RICH or DANZIGER.

Section 9A of Public Law 252-76th Congress, approved August 2, 1989, otherwise known as the Hatch Act provides:

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person employed in any capacity by any agency of the Federal Government to receive compensation on any part thereof to be paid from funds authorized or appropriated by any Act of Congress who have membership in any political party or organization which advocates the overthrow of our constitutional form of government in the United States.

(2) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be immediately removed from the position or office held by him and thereafter no part of the funds appropriated by any Act of Congress for such position or office shall be used to pay the compensation of such person.

It is provided in various Appropriation acts that no part of the funds so appropriated shall be used to pay the salary or wages of any person who advocates for who is a member of an organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States by force or violence and that an affidavit shall be considered prima facie evidence that the person making the affidavit does not advocate and is not a member of an organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States by force or violence. Such acts provide further that any person who advocates for who is a member of an organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States by force or violence and accepts employment the salary or wages for which are paid from any such appropriation shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than 1 year or both and that the above penalty shall be in addition to and not in substitution for any other provisions of existing law.

I, William Dowziger, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have read and understand the foregoing, that I do not advocate the overthrow of the Government of the United States by force or violence, that I am not a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States by force or violence, and that during such time as I am an employee of the Federal Government I will not advocate nor become a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States by force or violence.

APPOINTING OFFICER BEFORE WHOM THE FOREGOING CERTIFICATE IS MADE:

- Before appointment is made, consider this form must be submitted to the appropriate civil service office for approval.
- (1) Discrepancy—Answer to question 2 (a) hereon shows (origin birth, wife, parents) to which question in the application shows birth in the United States.
- (2) Discrepancy—Discrepancy exists between the answer given to question 2 (b) hereon and that given to the corresponding question in the application, and if questioning of the applicant (in the manner described in Departmental Circular No. 465) either substantiates doubt as to eligibility or indicates willful misrepresentation. (This instruction applies only in probationary appointments.)
- (3) Members of family—Answer to question 3 hereon includes the names of two or more persons at the same address as the appointee.
- (4) The appointee holds any State, Territorial, County, or municipal office or position, whether by election or appointment, in possible violation of the Executive Orders of January 17 and 28, 1917, and does not agree to resign such position or office if necessary. (See Civil Service Commission Form 1246 quoting these orders and listing exceptions thereto.)
- (5) Applicant's answer to questions 11 (a), (b), and (c).
- (6) If the appointee's answer to question 11 (c) is "Yes," he cannot be given appointment.

Please fill in and sign the following in connection with probationary appointment.

- Have you, for purposes of identification and to prevent impersonation—
- (1) Questioned the appointee on his personal history for agreement with his application statements?
- (2) Checked the appointee's personal and physical appearance for agreement with his medical certificate and descriptions given in preliminary and declaration sheet?
- (3) Checked the appointee's signature and handwriting in this form with that in the examination papers and application?

The above certificate was executed before me, in his own handwriting, by the identical person who has reported for assignment to duty. The appointee has been identified satisfactorily by the method described in Departmental Circular No. 105.

This is to be signed by a civil servant of the Department or Bureau in which the appointee reports and by a policy maker, and does not need to be sworn to.

The image shows a document page with a grid-like structure, likely a ledger or form. The page is heavily degraded with noise and artifacts, making the text illegible. The layout appears to have a header section at the top and a main body with multiple columns and rows. The header section contains several lines of text, possibly names or titles, followed by a large area of data or a table. The table has multiple columns and rows, with some cells containing text and others appearing empty or containing small, illegible marks. The overall appearance is that of a low-quality scan of a document.

...was the Engineer in charge of the Ordnance Unit of the Design Section. It was part of a large staff of key people transferred by the Navy Department to manage the commissioned U.S. Naval Shipyard Terminal Island, California. Technically, it was responsible for installation of ordnance equipment made shipboard inspections of equipment malfunctions and battle casualties made fire control elements of shipboard ordnance. Administratively, it was required to set up the working procedures, organize the reference material for information, and to interview and recommend the hiring of suitable staff.

Mechanical Engineer $2800 - yr.

Designed flow charts, tools, jigs and fixtures for limited production of tools for the production of less than one hundred Ordnance gun turret fire control instruments.

Investigated Ordnance battle damage and equipment malfunctions and made recommendations for repairs on both U.S. and foreign vessels. On several occasions on foreign vessels, new equipment had to be designed and built to replace battle beyond repair.

MEMO

RE: WILLIAM DANZIGER;
ESPIONAGE - R

MRS. SYLVIA DANZIGER was interviewed by Special Agents ROBERT F. ROYAL and JOHN A. HANISCH at her home on August 28 and 29, 1950.

She advised she was born January 3, 1919, as SYLVIA EHRLICH and resided at that time at 647 East Eleventh Street, New York City. In 1925, she moved to the 1900 block of Monterey Avenue (exact address unknown) and in 1929, she moved to either 960 or 970 Tinton Avenue, New York City. In 1932, she moved with her family to 1105 Tinton Avenue, where she remained until November 27, 1938, on which date she married WILLIAM DANZIGER, and they both left immediately for Washington, D. C.

In Washington they resided for six weeks starting November 28, 1938, at 1316 Delafield Road, and then for two weeks after that, in the 1400 block of Columbia Road. In February, 1939, they moved to 2517 K Street, North West, remaining there until July, 1939. From July, 1939, until August, 1941, they resided at 2819 S Street, South East, and from then until March or April of 1943, lived at 304 East 178th Street, New York City.

Thereafter they went to California and resided for one month at 905 Senate Drive, a home development at San Pedro, California. They then moved to a house at 2270 Belmont Street, Long Beach, California, where they remained until April, 1945.

NY 65-1539

At that time they returned East, and MRS. DANZIGER stayed for two weeks with her mother in New York City while her husband looked for an apartment in Washington, D. C. Thereafter they lived at 4342 Halley Terrace, South East, Washington, D. C. until July, 1946, and at 1909 19th Street, North West, until April 7, 1949. They then moved to 5501 Seventh Street, North West, in the ground floor of which building they operated the radio and appliance store which faced on Kennedy Street, with the address of 631 Kennedy Street.

In March, 1950, WILLIAM DANZIGER came to New York to find employment and living quarters, and stayed with MRS. DANZIGER's mother. MRS. DANZIGER remained in Washington selling the appliance business, and came to New York on May 8, 1950. On May 15, 1950, they moved into their present address at 124 Featherbed Lane, Bronx, New York.

MRS. and MR. DANZIGER have two children, a daughter, FERN ILENE DANZIGER, born November 15, 1943, in Los Angeles, California, and a son, GEORGE DANZIGER, born October 25, 1946, in Washington, D. C.

MRS. DANZIGER indicated her relatives are as follows:

Father, MAX EHRLICH, age 55, born in Russia, city unknown, and arrived in the United States when about eight years old.

Mother, IDA TUCKER EHRLICH, age 52, born in Russia, city unknown, and arrived in the United States when about twelve years old.

Both parents presently reside at 1777 Bryant Avenue, Bronx, New York, and they were both naturalized through their respective fathers' naturalization. Her grandfather's name was ELIA EHRLICH.

Besides her parents she has a brother, IRVING ERLICH, who spells his last name differently from the rest of the family, and who also resides at 1777 Bryant Avenue.

MRS. DANZIGER has a sister, FLORENCE EHRLICH, who resides at 1777 Bryant Avenue, Bronx, New York.

With reference to the various subjects and suspects in this case, MRS. DANZIGER stated she did not know JULIUS ROSENBERG, had never seen him, and had never even heard his name mentioned either by her husband or anyone else, until the time the newspaper publicity revealed his arrest. She was questioned several times about this and always gave the same answer. She was also unable to identify his photograph. She likewise did not know and had never heard of MRS. JULIUS ROSENBERG.

MEMO
NY 65-1539

She also advised she did not know ALFRED SARANT, JOEL BARR, DAVID GREENGLASS and wife, MICHAEL and ANN SEDOROVICH, STEVE JAVNA, and WALTER and RUSSELL MC NUTT.
WALDO

MRS. DANZIGER advised that she knew MAX ELITCHER, who was a classmate of her husband at CCNY. Both her husband and ELITCHER went to Washington, D. C. together on November 1, 1938, after they graduated from CCNY. Her husband returned to New York City and they were married on November 27, 1938, and both she and her husband then went to Washington.

She went on to say that after that, principally in 1939, the only time she saw MAX ELITCHER and MORTON SOBELL was when she and her husband would have both of them in for a Sunday morning breakfast. She explained that since both ELITCHER and SOBELL were single, and she and her husband were married, they did not have too much in common and had separate interests and friends.

She further stated that both of them saw MAX ELITCHER in New York on several occasions between August, 1941, and 1943, at which time the DANZIGERS moved to the West Coast. While in California they received a few letters from and sent a few letters to MAX ELITCHER.

Upon their return East, the DANZIGERS again saw ELITCHER, and for the first time met his wife. MRS. DANZIGER advised that MRS. ELITCHER has a dominating and superior personality, which resulted in MRS. DANZIGER feeling very inferior in her presence. For this reason the friendship between ELITCHER and DANZIGER cooled. The last time MRS. DANZIGER saw the ELITCHERS was before they left Washington, D. C. late in 1948.

MRS. DANZIGER also advised that she knew WILLIAM MUTTERPERL, a classmate of her husband at CCNY. She stated her only recollection of him was that he was a poor boy who didn't even have a decent suit to wear. She advised she has not seen MUTTERPERL since before his graduation from CCNY in 1938, and did not know he had changed his name to PERL.

MEMO

NY 65-1539

She also advised she was acquainted with STANLEY RICH, a classmate of WILLIAM DANZIGER at CCNY. When she and her husband first went to Washington they lived in a furnished house for a few months, in which STANLEY RICH also resided. She stated she has not seen him since that time.

With reference to MORTON SOBELL, as previously mentioned both he and MAY ELITCHER during 1939 occasionally had Sunday morning breakfast with MR. and MRS. DANZIGER. Thereafter their paths did not cross too often. She recalled having MORTON SOBELL to dinner in New York City once between 1941 and 1943, and thereafter when they again lived in Washington she saw MRS. HELEN SOBELL about five or six times. The last time she personally saw the SOBELLs was in late June, 1950, after she and her husband moved to New York City. She later changed the time of this meeting to early June, 1950.

On this occasion she advised she suggested to her husband that now that they were in New York City they ought to take time out to renew their friendships, and accordingly, they visited the SOBELLs in Flushing, Long Island. She stated she was particularly interested in getting a plant from MRS. SOBELL, who makes a hobby of raising flowers. On this visit MORTON SOBELL reportedly stated he was getting tired of living in New York and wanted to go away, suggesting that possibly the West Coast would suit him. MRS. DANZIGER recalled she tried to dissuade him from going to California. She also recalled that SOBELL took her husband out to his garage to show him his tools and workshop. She related that SOBELL's sister-in-law was present at that time, and that she had locked herself in her room during the time the DANZIGERs were there.

On the first day she was interviewed this was all the information regarding SOBELL that MRS. DANZIGER related, and stated, moreover, that she was not aware SOBELL had written to her husband from Mexico.

When reinterviewed on the following day she advised that her memory had been refreshed and she now recalled that they had received a letter from MORTON SOBELL from Mexico. At first she was unable to recall whether she had read the letter herself, or whether her husband had read it to her. However, she related later that she must have read it herself since she recalled the letter was handwritten and signed, "MORTY".

Moreover, it was written on a regular sized white bond paper. She recalled, to the best of her knowledge, that SOBELL in the letter mentioned that he had gone to Mexico on a vacation; that he and his family flew down; and that they had a furnished apartment with maid service for $7.00 per week. She also stated that the letter mentioned that their child, "PIPS" had been ill on the plane trip to Mexico. Her recollection was that the letter was rather short and written on one side of the sheet only. She did not see the envelope, and did not personally get the letter from the mail box. She also stated that the letter did not request either herself or her husband to do anything for SOBELL.

MEMO

She then related that on the morning of August 29, 1950, both she and her husband went to her uncle who is an attorney, and who is also her husband's employer. While there, her husband told her uncle that he had answered this letter from SOBELL, but she did not know what he had written in his reply, since he had not previously told her this, and since that morning she had no chance to discuss this matter further with her husband.

In the course of the second interview, she also recalled that her husband had visited SOBELL the night SOBELL left for Mexico. In this connection, she advised that her husband wanted to put turnbuckles on their bed, and to install these he needed a drill. He recalled that on his last visit, early in June, 1950, to SOBELL he had seen the type of drill he needed among SOBELL's, and so had called him from a pay station. Upon her husband's return that night he had told her that the SOBELL's were leaving that evening for Mexico on a vacation, and both of them generally discussed thereafter how nice it was that SOBELL could go to Mexico on a vacation.

MRS. DANZIGER related with reference to herself that she graduated from Morris High School in 1936 and then attended Hunter College in 1936 for two and a half years, after which she went to Washington, D. C. She returned to Hunter College in 1942 for one year and majored in biology. After she went to Washington she attended one semester at Wilson Teachers College in 1939, and took six credits in 1940 at George Washington University. During this time she was also employed in Washington, D. C. by the Hecht Company.

She stated that while she went to Hunter College she attended several meetings sponsored by the students, which were either American Student Union or Young Communist League meetings. She was unable to recall which group it was or whether they attended meetings of both groups. However, she recalled hearing Congressman VITO MARCANTONIO speak at one of these gatherings. This occurred in 1937.

MEMO

She stated that both her husband, WILLIAM DANZIGER, whom she was dating at this time, and her parents disapproved of her actions and tried to persuade her not to become involved with these extra-curricular activities; in fact, her parents threatened to take her out of college if she continued. Thereafter, except for attending a few of these meetings, she did not become further involved, and since she was seeing her husband to be rather regularly, she did not have time to engage in these campus groups.

By way of explanation, she stated that at that time economic conditions were very bad, and these groups appeared to have a positive progressive program which appeared to have considerable merit, but more than that, she advised she was always a shy, retiring girl, with an inferiority complex, and constantly aware of the fact that she was and looked Jewish. By attending these meetings she had the feeling of having friends and belonging to something worthwhile.

She also advised that she attended a few meetings sponsored by the American Students Union while attending Wilson Teachers College in Washington, D. C. She also advised that while in Washington, both she and her husband belonged to the Consumers Union, and they both attended at least one meeting at the American Peace Mobilization held in the National Press Club, and that she possibly attended a few more of these meetings, but does not recall that either she or her husband ever became members of this organization.

She also advised she became active in the Women's Auxillary of the United Public Workers and played a leading part in the establishment of an international nursery school. She stated she was extremely enthusiastic over this project and it was the first time she had actively been one of the founders and moving forces on an important matter.

She denied being a member of the Washington Committee for Democratic Action, or ever acting as a cashier in Washington for the American Youth Congress.

With reference to her husband, she advised that WILLIAM DANZIGER was extremely social minded, in the sense that he favored the working man, but that he is not now and never had been a Communist. In view of his theory, he joined the United Public Workers Union, and that as a result of this she became interested in the Women's Auxillary of this group.

MEMO

In response to the question, "Are you now or have you ever been a member of the Communist Party?", MRS. DANZIGER asked, "Do I have to answer this question?". She was advised that she did not have to answer as the answer was already known by the interviewing Agents. She then stated that she might as well answer it, but pleaded that her Communist Party affiliations be kept from her husband as he did not know she had been a CP member.

She went on to say that she knows he lost his job at the Navy Department because of her membership in the Party and that she has this on her conscience, and is extremely sorry for her actions. She stated that when she moved to California she was extremely resentful and was not in favor of moving there. However, her husband wanted to go, and so they went. In the first place, she didn't want to leave her friends and relatives in the East; secondly, their acquaintances in California were all Gentiles and made remarks about her Jewish race, which irritated her and made her feel badly; thirdly, she was emotionally upset and, in fact, in Washington in 1946 and 1947 visited a Psychologist by the name of DOUGLAS KNOWLAND (ph) because of these feelings and conditions. She felt that her husband was primarily responsible and wanted to do something to hurt him, and accordingly, she joined the CP.

Her actual joining came about in the following manner:

On one occasion in Long Beach, California, she stopped at a bookshop to purchase a child's book for a present, and while there became engaged in a conversation with the woman in charge of the shop. She was unable to recall the name or address of the bookshop, or the name of the saleswoman. She was only able to describe her as a "big blond". During the course of the conversation, this woman persuaded her to attend a CP meeting held at the Odd-Fellows Hall. A few days later she again visited the same book shop to buy her husband a technical book, and this same woman at this time persuaded her to join the CP. She signed the membership card, and at this time used her mother's maiden name of TUCKER as her last name. After she got home she felt sorry for her actions and a day or two later called the woman in the book store and requested that her name be withdrawn from the CP, since she feared her husband's anger if he found out about it.

She denied ever having received any CP newspaper or periodical, stating that she couldn't receive this material in her home or her husband would have known about her CP affiliation.

MEMO
NY 65-1539

She denied having been a CP member in New York or Washington, D. C., or having her CP membership transferred from New York City to California. She was also unable to recall ever paying dues to the CP.

With reference to her car being seen in front of CP Headquarters in California, she stated that she never had visited the CP Headquarters and that she was unable to drive the car having only gotten a driver's license since her last arrival in New York City. In this connection she stated that many times their friends and neighbors in California would drive her shopping in the DANZIGER car and would have the use of their car on other occasions for their own purpose. She also stated that they did not return East for any visit during the time her husband was employed in California.

MRS. DANZIGER denied also that her husband had ever made any statements praising the Russian form of government, or comparing that government favorably with the government of the United States. She stated that she and her husband might have spoken favorably of Russia's war effort and economic progress.

In conclusion she stated that she was certain her husband, WILLIAM DANZIGER, was not a Communist and was not connected in any espionage matter with SOBELL, ROSENBERG, or anyone else.

With reference to her being able to keep her CP connection from her husband, she stated she had also [REDACTED] and that her husband was also unaware of this [REDACTED]. She also stated that she was certain her husband could not possibly be connected with the CP or with any espionage group, and that if he were involved in an espionage matter she would leave him in a moment. b7c
